At the same time as the official Team Round, a separate “unofficial” Team Round will be for all individual competitors. Participation in the “unofficial” Team Round is optional. The “unofficial” Team Round will not be used to determine the individual or team standings.

North Carolina has ruled that the chapter competitions will run an “unofficial” Countdown Round. Therefore only the Sprint, Target and Team rounds will determine the individual and team standings. The top individuals will participate in the Countdown Round, which will be held as a separate event.

North Carolina Mathcounts Competition: March 19, 2010 in Durham, NC

National Mathcounts Competition: May 6-9, 2010 at Disney World, Orlando, FL
